

Washington County Sheriff's Office &
Purgatory Correctional Facility

750 South 5300 West • Hurricane, Utah 84737
OFFICE (435) 656-6500 • FAX (435) 656-6599

Sheriff Cory C. Pulsipher

February 13, 2013

Re: Mr. Jay Pitcher

To Whom it May Concern:

I began my law-enforcement career in Washington County in October of 1986. One of the very first people I met was Jay Pitcher. Jay was serving as a volunteer member of our local Sheriff's Search and Rescue team. I quickly gained respect for Jay because of his willingness to serve others and the knowledge and professionalism that he brought to the entire Search and Rescue organization. I've now had the opportunity to know and associate with Jay for over 26 event-filled years. Jay has distinguished himself through his service and leadership.

Like the majority of our long-term Search and Rescue members, Jay has also been a successful businessman having owned and operated several businesses that have been a positive influence on our community. In addition to his professional achievements and accomplishments, Jay has found the time to volunteer in other community events including the Lion's Dixie Roundup, Washington County Fair, Santa Clara Swiss Days, and the Dixie R.E.A. Kite Festival.

A few years ago, I was looking for suitable entertainment for the Annual Search and Rescue Recognition Banquet. Someone offered a suggestion that I consider letting Jay perform his hypnosis show. Apparently, he had been perfecting his skills as a master hypnotist during his spare time and had really begun making a name for himself.

Jay's performance was a smashing success! It was just about the only topic of discussion for months following our annual bash. Due to the overwhelming positive response, I invited him back, and Jay stole the show again. Jay's performances have been unique, with new material each time. He captures his family-friendly audience and holds them spellbound. It is without any reservation at all that I would recommend Jay and his show for any audience. I know that you'll find his performance to be the high-point of your event.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Cory Pulsipher".

Cory Pulsipher
Washington County Sheriff